Middle Aged Marauders vs Gunners are Funner

Capsule: Middle Aged and the Gunners kicked off Legacy nicely. The stats below only show points. First week with the new board and scorekeeper had your stats guy slipping a bit. Both teams showed up with some depth The Gunners got something from everyone. Middle Aged did what they do. Grind on you. Take care of the ball and get some good shots. Obviously that does not work when you don't make shots which is obvious if Middle Aged scored 30. Gotta be close to an all time low for them. .

White Shadow vs Brick City

Capsule: Week One finale brought us a blowout. White Shadow rolled in and shot 64% and 61% from three. Nick Humphrey was everywhere for White Shadow. He shot 10-13 including 7-9 from 3 point land. With 27 points 3 boards and a dime he was player of the game. At one time Nick was 10-10 from the field. White Shadow has shooters all over the floor and beefed up down low with the addition of Colin. Brick City does what it does. Brings a good group of hard playing competitive dudes who know they can beat anybody if they get hot.

St. Pats. VS Broke the Code

Game Capsule: St. Pats did enough to win here against Broke the Code. Neither team played very well and could not find any rhythm. St. Pats big man Brett McGreevy could not buy a basket in the first half and J.R. the point guard was struggling from 3. Charles Williams had a nice game for Broke the Code. He played tough D on McGreevy while getting 10 points on some cool moves in the post and a sweet stroke from the arc he also added a nice dime. McGreevy warmed up in the 2nd half while blocking several shots in the 2nd half.

ICY HOT vs Brick City

Game Capsule: Closer than it looked. Both teams shot it about the same. Believe it or not Brick City took 14 free throws to compared to 2 for ICY HOT. That was basically the difference as both team shot about the same. If ICY HOT ever gets hot they can blow teams out. Omar and the BC crew come in like always: Jacke, focused and looking to play a good game. Former league director Bruce Miller had it going for BC. He finished with 17, 3 board and three sweet Dimes!

Diamond Investment Properties vs Brick City 2

D.I.V. did what it had to do to win. Bob Corrigan and Brett Corbett made for a nice 1-2 high low combo. Both guys shot it well and Corbett showcased his size down low picking up some easy hoops and playing tough defense. Brick City shot lots of bricks from downtown and could not get anything going. They continue to look for the right potion as we roll on. BC II may have something up it's sleeve.

Bank and forth both teams went all night. 16-15 1st quarter, 25-24 halftime, tied at the end, overtime and tied and then to double OT! Ila was everywhere for St. Pats. Recen;y back from a foot injury Ila put up 28 while St. Pats came in sans their point guard big man Brett in the middle. D.I.V got a big night from Nick C who went for 28, some boards, a steal, a block you name it. D.I.V also came in short handed. Great battle here! Fun to watch!

White Shadow VS LFG

Game Capsule: This was just 5 on 5. Two teams who know each other well and were playing shorthanded. LFG got out to 19-4 first quarter lead and that was about it. LFG made it tough for White Shadow as they only turned the ball over once. Taking care of the basketball and rebounding was the key. LFG got double digits from 4 players. LFG bigman Paul Rieter had a nice outing with 18. His 18 cam on some threes and some nice moves around the hoop. This was just another one in the rivalry. We played this one for White Shadow captain Justin Holes who was battling some health issues. We hope for speedy recovery and comeback.

Silver Peso vs Gunners are Funner

Game Capsule: Wild and crazy double overtime thriller! Both teams went back and forth with neither team ever having more than 6 point lead. In the end it was Silver Peso who came out on top when Captain Scott Shelton drained a deep three to ice. The cops across the street could hear Shelton and his teammates as roar came out of the gym. Peso had it all getting double figures from 4 players. Foge hit 6 threes, Rogoff had 12 and 5 dimes. Gunners big man Chris Low had 26 while Jack Kearns added a double double of his own. Great game. Another game where both teams come in short handed and still roll.

Broke the Code Vs Middle Aged Marauders

Game Capsule: Middle Aged is not playing around here. This team will come in and press you and play solid man to man defense for 40 minutes. Marc the ref said it reminded him of the old Nolan Richardson Arkansas teams who preached 40 minutes of hell. It's not quite that but the Marauders are out here looking for a challenge. Sharp shooter Eugene Barnes lit it up for 30 as the Maruders hung 90 and Broke the Code.

Silver Peso VS Icy Hot

Game Capsule: The Peso Bench kept growing as we approached game time. Peso put 9 in the book and 4 of them had double digits in points. Point Guard Nate Rogoff had it going as he was perfect from the floor including his free throws! Throw in 3 dime and Nate had it going. This one was never in doubt as Icy Hot gave it their best shot. A little outclassed and a short bench did not affect the effort. Big man Richter forgot how old he is and poured in 12 while snagging 8 boards. Hans the gunner had 12 of his for Icy Hot.

Game Capsule: Brick City II was in struggle mode all night. Gunners did what they do. Ball goes in and the ball goes out until we have a good shot. However they didn't make very many shots either! ## Summer/Fall 2023 Legacy (35+) Basketball League Box Scores

Week 6 9/28/2023     Diamond Investment Properties VS LFG

Game Capsule: This was a close game the whole way. D.I.V continues to stay close no matter who they are missing. LFG put 9 in the book and they all scored. Like D.I.V, LFG is looking for multiple ways to win and searching for scoring from places you would not expect. Both teams move the ball well and create nice passing lanes. LFG shot 48% from the field and from 3. LFG Captain Jonathan Granucci hoisted 7 shots all of them threes. He made 5 to lead LFG to the win.

Middle Aged Marauders VS Brick City

Game Capsule: Middle Aged came in again showing anyone and everyone they are coming to play. The Marauders are coming in waves lately. They can muck it up or get out in transition. They have more 1 on 1 guys than anyone and some sneaky shooters. Nice game for Del Armstrong getting 14 on 6-10 from the floor.. Left, right, the jumper... your pick. Del was in his bag dealing. I'm waiting for the Brick City Breakout game. It could come against anyone. It did not in this one.

White Shadow VS St. Pats

Game Capsule: The St. Pats Dads rolled in after a week off. White Shadow was kind of blur led by Billy Niccolinni. My goodness. 14-17 for 34 including 5 threes, boards, dimes and a steal. He was 9-10 at one point. We welcome back White Shadow captain Justin Holmes! St. Pats took a pounding but ran like hell. This team can beat a lot of teams in this league. White Shadow shot 65% firm the field and 47% from three. Sheesh.

Middle Aged Maruders and Brick City II

Game Capsule: Close game until the end. BC II missed an opportunity here. The Marauders leading scorer was out and BC II had the early lead. But then Zo, Del and Winebottle got going to put it away. Marauders shot 58% and 47% in Gene's absence. BC II needs that breakout game where it all clicks. The Marauders keep doing what they do.

Kent Friends VS White Shadow

Game Capsule: When the first quarter ended it was 33-6. Billy the Blur for White Shadow had it going early and often. Once White Shadow got into the 80's in the third you knew 100 was possible. Kent Friends battled for sure. Just way overmatched on a night where they only had 5. Jay Grenfell had a nice double double for Kent. Do everything guard Jesse Bean led White Shadow with 24, 5, 3, 1, and 1. He was everywhere. Tough to beat any team that shoots 65% from the field. My goodness! Kent took more shots that White Shadow!

Summer/Fall 2023 Legacy (35+) Basketball League Box Scores

PLAYOFFS – 10/26 Gold Championship

LFG VS White Shadow

Game capsule: What a game! Two legacy heavyweights face off in the final. Two-point game the whole way. We had a White Shadow tip in at the buzzer called off by both officials. White Shadow stood strong and escaped with a 3 point win in one of the best games of the season. Nick Humphrey took home player of the game honors getting 19 pts 8 boards, 1 dime and 1 steal. What a great end to a great Legacy Season!
