CONTRACT INSTRUCTOR'S INFORMATION PACKET & CLASS PROPOSAL FORM

INTRODUCTION

The purpose of The Ranch (Belvedere-Tiburon Joint Recreation Committee) is to provide diverse recreation opportunities for youth and adults residing on the 94920 peninsula, while maintaining the agency's self-supporting status. The agency offers instructional recreation classes and programs for youth and adults to achieve these goals. Classes are conducted and promoted through the agency's website, press releases, mailings and email blasts.

CLASS PROPOSALS AND ACCEPTANCE CRITERIA

Use the attached Class Proposal Form to submit your class proposal. Prospective classes are reviewed and selected based on the following criteria:

- 1. The qualifications of the instructor.
- 2. Course content and/or reputation and quality of the class.
- 3. Diversity of the program in relation to other programs already being offered.
- 4. The availability of an appropriate facility.

CONTRACT AGREEMENTS

Contracts are negotiated between the instructor, who is an Independent Contractor, and a Recreation Supervisor. The contractor and the agency are to carry out their responsibilities pursuant to the contract agreement that is signed by the contractor and a recreation representative when a contract agreement is reached.

Please carefully review the overview of responsibilities of the agency and the contractor, on the reverse side, prior to submitting the Class Proposal Form.

The Ranch (Belvedere-Tiburon Recreation) Responsibilities:

- 1. Engage the instructor and provide a written contract.
- 2. Provide a suitable facility. A facility where the services will be provided is stated in the contract. Room assignments at the facility are determined by space available each quarter. Room changes may be necessary.
- 3. Publicize the class.
 - Note: Because this is a responsibility of The Ranch, the contractor shall not advertise, print or publish any promotional material in connection with the instruction or service to be conducted without prior written approval from the recreation representative.
- 4. Collect fees, process registrations, cancellations, and transfers according to The Ranch registration policies.
 - Note: We ask that contractors refer all questions relating to registration, requests for transfers, and refunds to the recreation office.
- 5. Provide contractor with a class roster.
- 6. Process paperwork to pay contractor in accordance with the contract.
- Collect a W9 from Independent Contractor prior to the start of a program or class.
 Independent Contractors will be issued a Form 1099 IRS Tax Form at the end of the calendar year.

Contractor Responsibilities:

- 1. All those that work with The Ranch must comply with all The Ranch related organization policies. All must forgo a criminal background check, child abuse report training, and concussion training, to work with children.
- The contractor controls the content of the class and the manner of presentation. As an independent contractor of a children's class, the instructor must be capable of maintaining control of their class during the scheduled time agreed to, thus eliminating disruption to other events in the facility, and ensuring the safety of the children in their care.
- 3. If the class is held on school campus, the contractor agrees to follow up on absent children by calling their parent/guardian as to the child's whereabouts immediately following the start of class or inquiring with the school office as to whether the child was absent from school. The contractor may contact the recreation office or staff on site for assistance with this procedure.
- 4. The contractor agrees to remain with the children enrolled in their class and supervise them until they are picked up at the end of class. Children may not be left unattended. If there is a consistent problem with late pick-ups, please notify the recreation office.
- 5. The contractor must have an emergency plan to ensure the safety of participants and include that plan on the Class Proposal Form.
- 6. Pursuant to the independent contractor relationship to be established, the contractor is responsible for providing items A C listed below:
 - A. The Ranch withholds no taxes or social security from the contractor's payment. It is the Contractor's responsibility to report all earnings to the State and Federal Governments.

- B. The Ranch does not provide workman's compensation benefits, unemployment insurance, or any other benefit for the Contractor or Contractor's employees. It is the contractor's responsibility to obtain these benefits for themselves and their employees.
- C. The Ranch provides no insurance program for the participants or the Contractor. If the Contractor desires any insurance protection, the Contractor must acquire it independently. Proof of liability insurance is required for some classes. If this were a requirement for a class it would be discussed in advance and stated on the contract agreement.
- 4. Classes are taught according to a mutually agreed upon schedule. Once the schedule has been published, the contractor must notify The Ranch prior to making any changes to the teaching schedule. If the changes are mutually agreed to, it is the contractor's responsibility to notify the students, and provide the office and students with a make-up schedule.
- 5. The contractor is responsible for purchasing and maintaining his or her own program supplies.
- 6. The contractor must verify enrollment and immediately notify the recreation representative if the class registration roster and the contractor's attendance records do not correlate.
